About The Book

The Islamic Studies Series is a set of books that employ an interactive activity based syllabus, use effective infographics and are meant for school children and other learners. The syllabus adapts various concepts and activities developed based on research in child learning and intellect. These series have relevance to many aspects of daily life.

The main idea behind the Islamic Study book series is to introduce the Islamic principles and way of life at a very early stage of child development so that an Islamic teaching does not seem strange as the child (student) grows and advances in life.

*Everyone must be responsible in teaching Islam to their Children, as Prophet Muhammad ﷺ Said,
Everyone of you is a guardian and is responsible for his charges, Sahih al-Bukhari 7138*

Our Team

The team include renowned scholars at a doctorate level, Madani and other scholars from various Jama'as, professionals and experts in various areas such as MNCs, designing fields, heads of various institutions, and MNC etc.

Need of the book

Contemporary education has become life's main focus. However, ethics, morals and values have been lost in the endeavor for materialistic advancement in the current day and age. In order to understand, build and live a life of truly lasting success that benefits not only the individual learner but benefits all humans, creatures, environments, societies, systems and nations as well, we must and should seek a divine source of instruction. The world knows that the only true, authentic, source of divine instruction is the Quran and the Sunnah of the Prophet (ﷺ). In short it correlates many aspects of life.

Every child has the right to learn about Allah, and His Creation. It is the utmost responsibility of the parents and elders to fulfill this right of child. As Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said: Seeking knowledge is compulsory on every Muslim. Sahih Ibn Majah 184.

Feedback On Islamic Studies Series From Respected Personalities

Shaykh Dr. Saeed Ahmed Umri Madani (Head of Jamiath, Andhara Pradesh, Founder-Markaz Darul Bir, Pedana)

In this current age many syllabus of different methodology is in the market and every syllabus present in the market can't be best. Islamic syllabus can be beneficial for children if it is based on following criteria:

(a) Syllabus should not contradict the book of Allah and the Sunnah along with understanding of pious predecessor, (b) Syllabus or studies must have the aim of teaching and educating child, (c) Syllabus must be easy that the children should not feel as burden on them, (d) syllabus must have the description on minor topics before discussing on major topics, (e) Syllabus must increase step by step which includes the terminologies of Religion and worldly matters. By keeping in mind and by following the above criteria, Dae Faheem Iqbal has compiled the following 'Islamic Studies Series books' which is beneficial for our children. InshaAllah

Shaykh Dr. Usman, Principal- Jamiatul Muflihaat

I have seen my close friend's book 'Islamic studies series' for which I did proofreading also, MashaAllah.

Great efforts have been put in compiling this series and it fully deserves the best wishes.

Verily this series of books will be base of Islamic knowledge for the new generation. I pray to Allah SWT to accept this book and make it beneficial for the generations of this Ummah. Aameen

Mrs. Azra, Principal DPS
(Delhi Public School Kids)

I applaud the publication of your wonderful book on rearing children. You have done excellent hard work framing an order to refine, that should raise lots of eyebrows "Book without pulse is like a person without a spirit". Confront, set free to exchange mental blocks into building blocks. The act of writing turns out to be its own reward". Your books have intense flame will last longer.

Wishing you all the best in your future endeavors

Mrs. Asiya Sharief, Ex-Principal HIIS
Hidayah Islamic International school

The main aim of the book is to prepare and make the upcoming generation a practical Muslim so that they benefit. These books would promote Islamic spirit and accordingly build up the mind of the youth. The Author felt concerned about education of Muslim children and put forth a great deal of individual efforts in this direction. May the efforts and recognized and may prove fruitful.

May Allah accept it and reward him here and hereafter. Aameen

Mr. Sadiq, Director
Noble Kids School, Kadapa

This Syllabus is made easy and well designed for kids. Most Important part is that many Important things are collected in one place, its very easy for teachers, child & parents.

Best book for home schooling also as it has Quranic surah, Duas, Adaab etc.

Muhammad Adil Ahmed Khan (Asst. General Manager - Hinduja Global Solutions)

"Ma Sha Allah the book is very illustrative and easily captures a child's attention. The fonts are big enough for easy reading and the Islamic information is extremely beneficial for the toddler age group.

JazakAllahu Khairan for this excellent piece of work. May Allah ta'ala be pleased with you and your good work becomes a source of Sawab e Jaariya for you, Aameen"
